In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

All people are sacred
Now the Lord God had planted a garden in the east, in Eden; and there he put the man he had formed.

Genesis 2:9 NIV
And the Lord God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat from it you will certainly die.”

Genesis 3:2-3 NIV
“You will not certainly die,” the serpent said to the woman.

Genesis 3:4-5 NIV
“You will not certainly die,” the serpent said to the woman. “For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

Genesis 3:4-5 NIV
When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

Genesis 3:6 NIV
When you fixate on what is forbidden, you can’t focus on what is good
Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Genesis 3:7 NIV
Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

Genesis 3:8 NIV
He answered, “I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid.”

Genesis 3:10 NIV
Our mess is the place where God loves to meet us
God created a people who were free enough to walk away, but loved enough to be rescued
