

The background of the image is a piece of marbled paper with a complex, organic pattern. The colors are primarily shades of blue, ranging from light, almost white, to deep navy and black. The patterns resemble swirling clouds, veins of stone, or perhaps the cross-section of certain minerals. There are some darker, more textured areas that look like small pools or inclusions. A dark blue rectangular box is centered over the middle of the image, containing the text.

DON'T LOSE YOUR MARBLES

Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Psalm 90:12 NIV

Forget them?

Ignore them?

Paul

Today you are not who you were yesterday, and tomorrow you will not be who you are today. Today you are better than you were yesterday, but not as good as you will be tomorrow.

Be very careful, then, how you live...

Ephesians 5:15 NIV

When you believe that every moment has purpose, you are motivated to be present in every moment.

Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise,

Ephesians 5:15 NIV

making the most of every opportunity,

redeeming the time,

Ephesians 5:16 NIV/NKJV

redeeming the time,

Ephesians 5:16 NKJV

making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil.

Ephesians 5:16 NIV

Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is.

Ephesians 5:17 NIV

Time is measured in minutes, but life is measured in moments.

“So I will restore to you the years
that the swarming locust has eaten,

Joel 2:25 NIV

When you turn to God, He will return to you the life you gave away when you turned away from Him.

And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:29 NIV

When you put Jesus at the center of today, both yesterday and tomorrow are filled with hope.
