

A close-up, profile view of a man with a beard and a cowboy hat, looking out over a landscape. The background shows a cloudy sky at dusk or dawn, with a wooden fence post visible in the foreground. The text "GIVE US KENTUCKY" is overlaid in white, spaced-out capital letters across the middle of the image.

G I V E U S K E N T U C K Y

June 1, 1792

Once upon a time, Kentucky was thought of as the place for both a new life and a better life.

Once upon a time, Kentucky was the starting point for an awakening that changed the faith of a generation and impacted the faith of future generations.

They said to me, “Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.”

Nehemiah 1:3 NIV

When I heard these things, I sat down and wept. For some days I mourned and fasted and prayed before the God of heaven.

Nehemiah 1:4 NIV

God, break our hearts for what could be and what should be.

---

God, give us Kentucky.

We aren't trying to grow our church.
We are trying to change the world.

We aren't praying for a move of God, we are the move of God.
We just need to move!

Give us Kentucky.