

IT'S ALL
WE HAVE.

I alone am responsible
for my life.

Irresponsible people often blame
other people for their irresponsibility.

It's not just that we don't teach people how to take responsibility for their own life; it's that in many ways we actively discourage them from doing so. Woke culture, safe spaces, and victimhood—each is a manifestation of a culture that has replaced individual responsibility with collectivist notions of injustice.

Jon Miltimore

I've seen things you can't imagine...horror shows you can't fathom, and people who have been hurt in so many ways, on so many different dimensions. Should they be bitter? Should they be resentful? Should they become violent? These things don't help.

In the end they have to struggle uphill despite their excess burden because the alternative is far worse...this is the essence of responsibility, and it is in responsibility that our lives find meaning...

This is how one becomes a ship that can weather storms — not by placing your power in things beyond your control, but by taking responsibility over things you can.

Dr. Jordan Peterson

I alone am responsible
for my life.

The impact and consequences of personal responsibility are rarely
just personal.

The impact and consequence of personal irresponsibility are rarely
just personal.

Doing the responsible thing today
will prevent regret tomorrow

Doing the responsible thing today
will create a better tomorrow.

Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

Joshua 1:2 NIV

Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it — Today
Then you will be prosperous and successful. — Tomorrow

Joshua 1:2 NIV

“Be strong and very courageous.
Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful
wherever you go

Joshua 1:7 NIV

What you do today lays the groundwork for what you experience tomorrow.

“Moses my servant is dead. Now then, you and all these people, get ready to cross the Jordan River into the land I am about to give to them—to the Israelites.

Joshua 1:8 NIV

Early in the morning Joshua and all the Israelites set out from Shittim and went to the Jordan, where they camped before crossing over.

Joshua 3:1 NIV

When you follow God today, you are positioned better for tomorrow.

Joshua told the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do amazing
things among you.”

Joshua 3:5 NIV

Their yesterday was proof of a better tomorrow, but it was contingent on what they did today.

The potential of tomorrow inspires
us to do the hard things today.

The hard work of today helps us to see more clearly the potential of tomorrow.

And the Lord said to Joshua, “Today I will begin to exalt you in the eyes of all Israel, so they may know that I am with you as I was with Moses.

Joshua 3:7 NIV

The priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the Lord stopped in the middle of the Jordan and stood on dry ground, while all Israel passed by until the whole nation had completed the crossing on dry ground.

Joshua 3:17 NIV

God seldom makes a way when
we have made no effort.

Today is the architect of tomorrow.

Be responsible for what you can do, and trust God with the rest.
