Live Together
or Die Alone

You can be alive alone,
but you can't thrive alone.

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus,

Hebrews 10:19 NIV

by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is,
his body, and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

Hebrews 10:20-21 NIV

let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water.

Hebrews 10:22 NIV

Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds,

Hebrews 10:23-24 NIV

Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another— and all the more as you see the day approaching.

Hebrews 10:25 NIV

Let us draw near to God.

Let us hold on to hope.

Let us spur each other on.

Let us keep meeting together.

Disconnected things eventually get sick and die.

Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.

James 5:16 NIV

Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowd over. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead.

Acts 14:19 NIV

But after the disciples had gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.

Acts 14:20 NIV

They preached the good news in that city and won a large number of disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch, strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith. “We must go through hardships to enter the kingdom of God,” they said.

Acts 14:21 NIV

Acts 14:22 NIV

Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, committed them to the Lord in whom they had put their trust.

Acts 14:23 NIV

Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, committed them to the Lord in whom they had put their trust.

Acts 14:23 NIV

After going through Pisida, they came into Pamphylia, and when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

Acts 14:24-25 NIV

From Attalia they sailed back to Antioch where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

Acts 14:26 NIV

On arriving there, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. And they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

Acts 14:27-28 NIV

Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds,

Hebrews 10:23-24 NIV
