- A STUDY OF PSALM 23 -

We are all taking our cues in life from
someone or something.

The someone or something you take your cues from in life will ultimately determine the quality
and direction of your life.

Everyone has a shepherd.
Who or what is yours?

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full. I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

John 10:10-11 NIV

The hired hand is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep. So when he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it.

John 10:12 NIV

The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing
for the sheep.

John 10:13 NIV

“I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me—just as the Father knows me and I know the Father—and I lay down my life for the sheep.

John 10:14-15 NIV

You can trust your life to the One who laid down His life for you.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

Psalm 23:1 NKJV

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I lack.

Psalms 23:1 HCSB

lack for anything.

everything I need.

never in need.

all that I need.

nothing.

Psalms 23:1 NIV

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack
nothing.

Psalms 23:1 NIV

Our worst decisions often come
when we are most discontent.

Discontentment always costs you something.

When the God who made all things, controls all things, and has access to all things is your Shepherd, then you can say, “My life lacks nothing, and I have everything I need.”

...I have learned to be content
whatever the circumstances.

Philippians 4:11 NIV

I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation,
whether well fed or hungry,
whether living in plenty or in want.

Philippians 4:12 NIV

I can do all this through Christ who gives me strength.

Philippians 4:13 NIV

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack
nothing.

Psalms 23:1 NIV

He makes me lie down in green pastures.

Psalms 23:2 NIV

He leads me beside quiet waters.

Psalms 23:2 NIV

God cares about how you feel,
not just what you do.

He leads me beside quiet waters.

Psalms 23:2 NIV

He refreshes my soul...

Psalm 23:3 NIV

What if God is trying to still
you so He can heal you?

The one who has the whole
world in His hands
has me in His hands.

Rest, then, in the Father's hands.

Contentment is realizing He is all we need and He will meet all of our needs.

The one who has the whole
world in His hands
has me in His hands.

Rest, then, in the Father's hands.
